Owning one's impact through clear, respectful communication. Using DiSC, leaders and teams will better understand ways to build greater clarity and connection in every interaction.

Building a culture of excellence by actively reducing threats, encouraging ownership, and building trust to elevate performance, loyalty, and meaningful relationships.

Leading with a clear vision and purpose and setting clear expectations so that each decision reflects a personal commitment to the Burton values.

Taking personal responsibility for self-awareness, self-regulation, and relational maturity through emotional intelligence.

Developing and empowering others through coaching.

Empowering team ownership and growth by fostering mutual accountability, leveraging strengths, and delegating effectively.

Creating an environment that honors diverse perspectives, ensures others feel a sense of belonging, and builds a culture where everyone can thrive.
