Breakthrough Beliefs

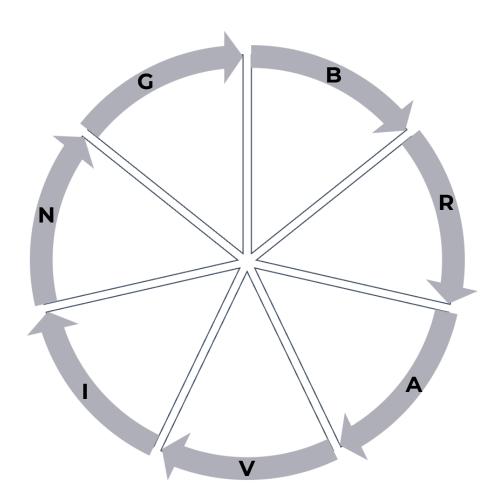

Session Three: August 20, 2025

Breakthrough Beliefs

- You can have control or you can have growth. But, you can't have both in equal proportion at the same time.
- It isn't faster or better if you do it yourself. It's faster and better if you improve at delegating.

Widespread distrust in a society imposes a kind of tax on all forms of economic activity, a tax that high-trust societies do not have to pay.

Francis Fukuyama

Organizational Trust Assessment

Directions: Using a 1 through 4 scale, rate each statement by considering how frequently your organization displays the ability described. There are no right or wrong answers. Try not to spend too much time on any one statement.

Trust-Building Tips

Extend Trust...Build Trust

- Extend trust to yourself and others.
- Challenge the stories that play out in your head and the meaning you give events.
- Use power words like appreciate and trust.
- End requests with the powerful, clarifying phrase and here's why.
- Share information as early as possible.
- Consistently model respect.
- Build a sense of inclusion and belonging in every interaction.
- Always be open to learning, growth, and feedback.
- Don't be the threat.
- Maintain a growth mindset -
- Adopt an attitude of "What do we have here that's good?"
- Ask for help.
- Create a hope FULL environment; communicate good things happen here.
- Evaluate what is yours to own (and what isn't yours to own).
- Give credit.
- Identify how far you can push yourself and others.
- Always communicate an "I am for you" attitude.
- Consistently set up others for success; never to trick, humiliate, or belittle.
- Choose to see setbacks as moments of valuable learning.
- Self-regulate. Your team doesn't need a perfect leader; they need a collected leader.
- Give a choice and a voice to promote engagement and ownership.
- Honor the absent and refrain from gossip of any type.
- Hold self and others accountable to any inappropriate behavior.
- · Avoid micromanaging by honing your delegation skills.
- Introduce, lead, and manage change visibly, slowly, and deliberately and allow for employee input.

Delegation

Clarity

What do you want the delegate to do?

1-2 sentence description of what you want done – begin with a verb.

What does "done" look like?

Clearly describe what a win looks like.

What is the "why" of this delegation?

Give any context necessary to give the bigger picture.

Level

Consider the nature of the task and the skill/experience of the delegate.

1	Do as I say	Do exactly as I have asked.
2	Research and report	Research the delegation & report findings. We will discuss before moving forward.
3	Research and recommend	Research the delegation & make a recommendation after weighing pros & cons.
4	Decide and inform	Do the research, make a decision, and inform me on what you decided.
5	Decide and act	Make whatever decision you think is best with no need to report back.

Expectations

What are any essential, non-negotiable requirements or expectations you have? (cost, expectations, attitude, etc.)

Accountability

What is the timeline? How will you hold each other accountable? List deadlines & check-in points.

Repeat & Review

Repeat what you heard.

Did you get the results you wanted? What could you improve for next time?
